Must Have

User must be able to record text reflections about the development of meta skills

User must be able to associate recordings with a category of meta skill they have developed

User must be able to access previous recordings

User must be able to read up on what the different meta skills are and what they consist of

App must run on mobile

Should Have

User should be able to record audio reflections about the development of meta skills

User should be able to associate recordings with tags, which relate to skills included within categories of meta skills

User should be able to see stats of their most recorded skills

Push notifications

Could Have

Analytics

Badges

Tutorial Mode

Web app